Bronze and Rose Glaze Ceramic

Contract Suitable As Is

Just like the sands of time, this table lamp has desert-inspired hues and moody overtones. The ceramic bottle base is first finished in a bronze and rose glaze that naturally react with each other and drip to form different tonal layers. Once the bronze metallic glaze is added, even more reactive effects are created, so the overall piece ends up with layers upon layers of interesting details. It is topped with an off-white linen drum shade with white cotton lining. finish will vary.
