The Coterie Bronze Chandelier is made of wrought iron in a bronze finish with a contemporary gold finish on the inside of the shades to bring added warmth to the illumination. Clarence Mallari was looking to design an elegant black chandelier with innovative technology. Elements that bring the fixture elegance are the tall and thin arms, the small-scaled shades, and the aircraft cable on which it is hung; the innovation is thanks to the particular LED bulbs he chose, which are included with the
